THE EMPEROR MENELIK'S OPENING OF HIS NEW RAILWAY AT ADDIS-ABEBA.

The Emperor Menelik of Abyssinia is entirely in sympathy with progressive ideas, and encourages everything that makes for the commercial and industrial welfare of his country. A railway is at present under construction from Addis-Abeba to Dire-Daoua, and the Emperor lately opened a section of the line which has been completed for a distance of about thirty kilometers. The Emperor himself is bearing the expense of the railway track.

RULES OF THE SHOW

Pertinent Pointers for Exhibiting Poultry People.

The following rules will govern the exhibition of the Hawaiian Poultry Association which opens tomorrow and continues until Saturday night, closing at 10 o'clock:

The show will be judged by comparison. The latest edition of the American Standard of Perfection will be the guide of the judges in awarding the prizes on all the varieties recognized therein.

All prizes offered on best exhibits will be computed by points. A first prize to count 6, a second to count 4, a third to count 3, a fourth to count 2. If after computing points for best exhibits there is a tie, the prize will be awarded to the largest entry.

Any exhibitor interfering with the judges in the discharge of their duties, or interfering with or handling any specimen or specimens, or informing the judges as to the identity of any specimen or specimens, shall forfeit all claims he may have in the premium list. Exhibitors wishing to make any statement relative to their specimens may do so in writing, addressed to the Board of Directors.

After the entire show has been judged the awards will be supervised and approved by the Board of Directors, and a ribbon or card stating the prize will be placed on each winning coop, where it must remain until the close of the exhibition, for the enlightenment of visitors. Cards showing the entry number shall be attached to the coop as soon as specimens are in position. No other writing, cards, circular or decoration or distinguishing mark whatsoever will be allowed upon coops until after the judging has been completed and the award cards are up, and then, only on the approval of the Secretary.

The decision of the judges, after being ratified by the Board of Directors, will be final. All protests must be made within six hours from the posting of the awards, in writing, and delivered to the Secretary, which must be accompanied by a deposit of $5.00; and if, after the matter has been thoroughly investigated, by a committee to be composed of two members of the Board of Directors, and the Judge in that class, it should prove to be without foundation the deposit shall be forfeited. If the protest is sustained the deposit shall be returned.

In shipping, exhibitors must have their coops plainly addressed to the Secretary, and the Secretary notified of their coming. Coops must also be plainly marked with the name and address of exhibitor.

All entries must occupy coops furnished by the Association. When fowls are received at the doors of the exhibition hall they will be taken in charge by the Superintendent, placed in their respective coops, fed, watered and afterwards (those subject to weight clause) weighed. Fowls on exhibition will be in the exclusive custody of the Superintendent from the time they reach the exhibition hall until the show closes. Birds shipped from a distance for exhibition will be allowed credit for weight, viz: shipped from neighboring islands, 1/4 pound.

All specimens must be leg banded. Exhibitors are requested to furnish their own leg bands; if furnished by the Association a charge of five cents will be collected. All specimens must be exhibited in their natural condition, except game and game bantams.

During the exhibition no specimen entered can be removed except by the consent of the Superintendent. No person will be allowed in the exhibition hall after closing hours, except by the consent of the Superintendent. The exhibition will in all respects be under the control of the Board of Directors. Poultry showing symptoms of disease when received or during the exhibition will be immediately taken from the hall and cared for and the owner notified or the birds returned to him at his expense.

The Association will not be responsible for any loss that may occur, but all specimens consigned to the Association will receive attention from intelligent and careful attendants, and all possible pains taken to prevent loss or damage, that specimens may be returned to the owner uninjured at the close of the exhibition. Exhibitors need not necessarily accompany their entries. Watchmen will be kept on duty day and night. All eggs laid during the exhibition will be gathered and the vitality destroyed at once.

Exhibitors desiring to dispose of their specimens but unable to attend the exhibition, may give their price on the entry blank, the specimen to be sold by the Secretary. If sold, the full amount of such sale will be remitted to the exhibitor at the close of the exhibition. No commissions will be charged on sales, but exhibitors present are expected to attend to sales of their own specimens. The Secretary must be notified of every sale or transfer, otherwise birds will be returned to the original shipper.
